

2010 Workshop Series on Pet Wellness

Presented by Coastal Humane Society

How to Keep Your Companion Animals Healthy (and Happy) at Home

Ever wonder why your cat has stopped using his litter box or what to do when your dog starts pulling out her fur? What are the best ingredients to look for in your pet's foods?

Come learn the answers to your most pressing pet questions by attending this free Pet Health 2010 Workshop Series. These workshops are designed to provide companion animal owners with basic information on how to address common pet issues and behavior problems, and provide tools and guidance to solve concerns before they escalate.

Experts from near and far will discuss and demonstrate hands-on animal care techniques that you can use at home to address your pet's needs.

A FREE workshop series
dedicated to pet wellness
and health care.

COASTAL HUMANE SOCIETY

30 Range Road, Brunswick
207-725-5051 * coastalhumanesociety.org
Questions? info@coastalhumanesociety.org

Thursday, April 29th 6:00 - 7:45 pm

Cat*titude - Unraveling the Mysteries of Cat Behavior

with Debra Givin, DVM,; Jo Jacques; & Karen Campbell

Feline behavior issues are often reasons cats are surrendered. Frequently cat questions are overshadowed by issues about “Fido”. Good News! A new cadre’ of feline behaviorists are emerging and we’re learning more every day about kitty’s unique behaviors and trainability. Bring YOUR questions, and come discover underlying reason’s for Fluffy’s litter box problems, obsessive meowing, and MANY more fascinating feline facts provided by regional cat experts.

Tuesday, September 14th 6:00 - 7:45 pm

“Dog’s Rule”- but Why? Canine Behavior Explained

We’ve all heard about “pack leaders” but what else is important to your canine? This presentation, lead by a panel of dog experts, will give you insight on how to have a better relationship with the family dog. Come with questions for our behaviorists, PLUS learn about environmental enrichment, teaching socially acceptable behaviors, and many techniques to keep your dog’s life fulfilled and your life tranquil. You will have all the tools needed to create your own happily-ever-after tail.

Wednesday, November 17th 6:00 - 7:45 pm

“Good Eats” - A Walk Thru the Pet Food Aisle

with Judy Herman, DVM; and Associates

In this presentation, experts in the field of animal nutrition will tell you how to pick your way through today’s maze of pet food choices. Is raw better than baked? Are too many grains harmful? Can my cat be a vegetarian? What about table scraps and supplements? Arm yourself to knowledge-ably attack the pet food aisle and make great, affordable choices to maintain optimal pet health.

A FREE workshop series
dedicated to pet wellness
and health care.

NEW workshop location:
Curtis Memorial Library

Morrell Meeting Room, Brunswick (parking lot in rear of the library)

Call to reserve a seat or with questions: 725-5051